

Public education. Public good.

TELLING TALES OUT OF SCHOOL 2024

Sponsorship Package

A gala performance to advance
Canada's future, through investment in our public education system.

ABOUT THE EVENT

Telling Tales Out of School is an evening of inspired performances, wonderful food and drinks, and alluring auction items, this year taking place at the fabulous Young People's Theatre at 165 Front Street East on June 11, 2024.*

This event is a great opportunity to focus on creativity and innovation – and their impact – in our public education system. Your sponsorship will help ensure our schools can continue to thrive and evolve and our young people will have the bright future they deserve.

It is a night to both celebrate the promise of public education and support the vital work of People for Education.

Past performers have included July Black, Jim Cuddy, Gordon Pinsent, Margaret Atwood, Sarah Polley, Wali Shah, Atom Egoyan, Steven Page, Eric Petersen, Mary Walsh, and many more!

Telling Tales Out of School will be attended by a prestigious crowd of political and legal professionals, corporate executives, finance, education, and labour leaders, philanthropists, and pillars of the Toronto community.

ABOUT THE CAUSE

For over 25 years, People for Education has been an important voice for public education across Canada. Our research creates and mobilizes evidence to inform policy-ready ideas for the future.

In a rapidly changing world, our work has never been more important.

Our role is to ensure that schools prepare our children to thrive in whatever future they choose.
